

NRS Section	Current Language	Amendment Focus
NRS 171.17751	Language conflicts with authority granted to animal control officer	Clarify that animal control officer has authority to issue all citations within the field that he/she works
NRS 574.100(1)(c)	Cruelty section outlining what constitutes animal cruelty	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Insertion of failure to provide veterinary care, causing an animal to suffer from injury or illness -Insertion of to deprive an animal of good and wholesome air -Insertion of to cause an animal to ingest narcotics or alcohol by intention
NRS 574.100(2)	Restraint and confinement	-Insertion of contain
NRS 574.100(2) (c)	Time frame for tethering dog	Change from 14 hours in a 24 hour period to 8 hours in a 24 hour period
NRS 574.100(2)	Add new subsection to address confinement by crate and a maximum time frame allowed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Insertion of shall not confine a dog or cat by crate, box or other restrictive method which is not size appropriate, allowing the animal to stand up, turn around and lay down -Confinement by crate shall be limited to 8 hours in a 24 hour period
NRS 574.90(2-3)	Disposition Fighting Animals	Insertion of a probable cause hearing process to euthanize animals prior to final conviction
NRS 574.080(1)	Authority to take possession of animals and implements used in fighting	Omit authorized by law to make arrests
NRS 574.110	Abandonment of disabled animal	Integrate 574.110 into 574.100 and create language that addresses abandonment of an animal, rather than just a disabled animal. Also, clarify the definition of abandonment.
NRS 574.190	Carrying animal in cruel manner	Integrate language to address transporting an animal in the bed of a truck without proper cross tethering or by securing in a cage to prevent animal from being thrown, falling or jumping from the vehicle.
NRS 574.390 and 574.400	Floor space of primary enclosure for dog and cat	Clarify the primary enclosure minimum size for minimum age of 8 weeks rather than 6 months